Accessing the Parent Portal

The Bear Creek Community Charter School is pleased to provide to you web access to your child's current grades and attendance information. It is our hope that this access allows you to be a more active partner in your child's education. The Parent Portal will allow you to review your child's current grades and attendance, and will allow you to setup an automatic e-mail notification regarding your child's progress.

Direct your browser to <https://bearcreekschool.powerschool.com/public/home.html> and book mark this page or go to the School's web page at www.bearcreekschool.com and click on the Parent Portal icon on the bottom of the main page.

The following functions are currently in use within the Parent Portal:

- Grades and Attendance: Click on the blue grades to view the assignments for each subject that make up the current grade. The faculty will be updating information to their grade book within 3 days of an assessment. Attendance is updated daily.
- Grade History: This view shows you the final grades for each marking period that were published on the report card. Click on the blue grade and you will see the assignments that made up that grade.
- Attendance History: This view indicates your student's attendance for the most recent marking period. If you have questions about attendance codes, please call the school office.
- E-mail Notification: If you wish you may set up automatic Email Notification of your child's progress. Choose your personal settings and enter your email address into the form, when complete, click submit at the bottom of the page.

To e-mail a specific teacher, click on the blue teacher name which will open your default e-mail program. You may then e-mail the teacher directly regarding your child's progress.

At the end of your session, please log out of the program and be sure to keep your username and password confidential.
